My Designer Baby is running its first ever competition to win the fabulous Oakley Nappy Bag by Anya Hindmarch.

My Designer Baby has now been live for a couple of months so we decided it was a great time to host our first prize giveaway competition. In order to be eligible to win all you need do is register on the site before May 31st 2009.

The bag we're giving away as a prize is Anya Hindmarch's new Oakley Nappy Bag, which was generously supplied by the wonderful people at mama-la-mode. It arrived this morning and is absolutely gorgeous!

There are plenty of envious eyes around the office as sadly none of us hard working My Designer Baby members are allowed to enter :o(

So should you win and decide you don't want the bag (fat chance!) then feel free to donate it to one of us :o)

Don't worry if you've already registered as you'll automatically be included in the draw!

May may seem far away now, but it'll creep up faster than you realise so get registering to win...
